SUBJECT: Stock Items Needed on Stage for Scenes in "Call It A Day."

The scene of this play lies in a modern medical office building. Specifically, the play takes place in a doctor's office. The furniture in this office is modern.

The following items are needed:

1. Modern receptionist's desk and chair
2. Nine modernistic chairs (or combination chaise lounge and "comfy" chairs, the space of which is the equivalent of nine chairs.)
3. One modern standing coat hanger.
4. One tall folding screen (preferably plain) with three folding sections.
5. One modernistic magazine rack.
